

2019 Nomination Form – Embassy Scholarships

Eligibility and Program Details: Participants in EducationUSA Academy are international high school students ages 15-17 (18-year-olds may be accepted at some institutions). Participants should have a strong interest in experiencing college/university life on a U.S. campus and gaining skills needed to access U.S. higher education opportunities in the future. Academy participants must have at least Intermediate-High English skills (B2 or higher on the CEFR); some host institutions may require higher levels of proficiency.

Student Information

Nominee full legal name: _____
Last Name First Name MI

Nominee e-mail: _____

Nominee country of permanent residence: _____

If available, TOEFL score from within past 6 months: _____

If available, estimate of English proficiency on CERF scale: _____

2019 Host Institutions and Program Dates:

Host Institution	Start Date	End Date
Boston University	Varies by program
Diablo Valley College	July 15	August 9
Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University	June 9	June 29
Johns Hopkins University	July 8	Aug 2 (Note: 2- or 4- week options)
Northwestern University	July 8	July 26
St. Cloud University	July 7	July 27
St. John's University	July 24	August 8
Syracuse University	Varies by program
Temple University	July 7	July 27
University of Alabama in Huntsville	July 14	July 28
University of Colorado Boulder	July 1	July 27
University of Massachusetts Amherst	July 6	August 3
University of North Georgia	July 8	July 26
University of Tennessee Knoxville	July 6	August 3
University of Wisconsin-Madison

The earliest EducationUSA Academy starts June 10 and the latest Academy ends August 11. Is the nominee available to attend an Academy at any time between these dates? Yes No

If no, what are the nominee's dates of availability? _____

Placement: Do you have a preference for where the nominee is placed? Yes No

If yes, please list up to three institutions in order of preference*: _____

*Please note that we will attempt to accommodate placement requests. However, we cannot guarantee placement at particular host institutions.

For the student: Please provide a statement of interest (500 words or less) answering the question "Why do you want to participate in EducationUSA Academy and what do you hope to gain from the experience?" You may type the essay in the space below or attach it in a separate document.