

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE, U.S. EMBASSY JERUSALEM

NOTICE OF FUNDING OPPORTUNITY

Funding Opportunity Title: U.S. Embassy Jerusalem Funding Opportunity for Capacity and Network Building for Small to Medium Size Art Institutions in Israel

Funding Opportunity Number: PD-TLV-2022-005

Deadline for Applications: Monday July 11, 2022

Total Amount Available: Approximately $100,000 subject to availability of funds

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The U.S. Embassy Jerusalem is pleased to announce an open competition for individuals and organizations to submit applications that build the capacity of small- to medium-size art institutions in Israel across cultures (e.g. interfaith, Jewish-Arab, religious-secular) and create a network connecting them to one another and to U.S. cultural institutions.

Theory of Change: Diversity is defined as the quality or state of having many different forms, types or ideas. Art and art institutions play a significant role in their capacity to showcase this definition acting as incubators for diverse art scenes, as platforms for social meetings and dialogue, as a place for expanding knowledge and educational awareness of the “other”, hosting exhibits, artistic events and audiences from many different walks of life.

The funding aimed at small to medium art institutions, situated throughout Israel’s diverse geography and populations, will help build capacity in art management and inspire artistic collaborations and partnerships, enabling shared cultural events (and shared budgets) in order to showcase the cultural and artistic diversity to Israel’s myriad populations and through the various art forms, communicate about diversity and intercultural relations and understanding, strengthening civil society and countering violence.

Program Objectives:

The successful applicant will assist small and medium-sized local art organizations/institutions build their capacity as self-sustaining effective institutions connected to their communities and serving as a platform for networking and cooperation with other local and international art institutions and diverse communities, in Israel and in the U.S.

Project Activities/Key Deliverables:

- Training courses that provide tools for capacity building in small to medium size art institutions in Israel. These trainings should also promote economic opportunity and social entrepreneurship in the field of art and culture.
- A series of encounters led by major Israeli and American experts in the field of art management, that promote cooperation with American cultural and artistic institutions and experts.
- Practical implementation and follow up mentoring for six months following the theoretical course.
- A toolkit that can be used for implementation with other artistic institutions in the future, that promotes access to arts and cultural programming as tools of academic advancement, social representation, and economic empowerment, particularly of and among geographically and culturally peripheral communities.

Audiences:

- Managers and staffs of Israeli small and medium-size cultural institutions in diverse communities.
- Artists
- Artist cooperatives

2. Required Registrations:

All organizations applying for grants (except individuals) must obtain these registrations. All are free of charge:

- www.SAM.gov registration which will generate a UEI NCAGE/CAGE code

Any applicant with an exclusion in the System for Award Management (SAM) is not eligible to apply for an assistance award in accordance with the OMB guidelines at 2 CFR 180 that implement Executive Orders 12549 (3 CFR, 1986 Comp., p. 189) and 12689 (3 CFR, 1989 Comp., p. 235), "Debarment and Suspension."

The Unique Entity Identifier (UEI) is one of the data elements mandated by Public Law 109-282, the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA), for all Federal awards. SAM.gov is the Federal government's primary database for complying with FFATA reporting requirements. OMB designated SAM.gov as the central repository to facilitate applicant and recipient use of a single public website that consolidates data on all federal financial assistance. Under the law, it is mandatory to register in SAM.gov.

The UEI will be assigned when an organization registers or renews its registration in SAM.gov at www.SAM.gov. To access SAM.gov an organization is required to have a Login.gov account. Organization can create an account at <https://login.gov/>. As a reminder, organizations need to renew its sam.gov registration annually.

US-based organizations: A CAGE code will be automatically assigned when the U.S. organizations registers in www.sam.gov. CAGE must be renewed every 5 years. Site for CAGE: <https://cage.dla.mil/Home/UsageAgree>. Grantees may be asked for more information to finalized and must comply.

Foreign-based organizations: Must apply for a NCAGE code before registering in SAM.gov. Go to: <https://eportal.nspa.nato.int/AC135Public/CageTool/home> to apply for a NCAGE code. NCAGE codes must be renewed every 5 years.

It is in the organization's best interest to check if their CAGE/or NCAGE codes are active. Organizations are required to register/or renew their CAGE or NCAGE codes prior to registering or renewing www.sam.gov . Both registration and renewals for both CAGE and NCAGE can take up to 10 days. Organization's legal address in NCAGE/CAGE must mirror www.sam.gov.

www.sam.gov requires all entities to renew their registration once a year in order to maintain an active registration status in SAM.gov. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure it has an active registration in SAM.gov.

If an organization plans to issue a sub-contract or sub-award, those sub-awardees must also have a unique entity identifier (UEI number). Those entities can register for a UEI only at SAM.gov.

Organizations must apply for a registration in SAM.gov prior to submitting an application, and submit proof of having registered. All organizations applying for grants (except individuals) must obtain this registration, which is free of charge.

Note: A DUNS number is no longer required.

3. Submission Dates and Times

Applications are due no later than Monday July 11, 2022

4. Other Submission Requirements

All application materials must be submitted by email to TelAvivGrants@state.gov and not to individual staff.

Embassy Jerusalem will accept proposals until 6:00 p.m. on Monday July 11, 2022

The review committee will meet to evaluate proposals with the goal of providing an initial response within a month from the application deadline.

E. APPLICATION REVIEW INFORMATION

Review and Selection Process: A review committee will evaluate all eligible applications.

All applicants will be informed about the results of the review within one month from the application deadline.

F. OTHER INFORMATION

Guidelines for Budget Justification

Personnel and Fringe Benefits: Describe the wages, salaries, and benefits of temporary or permanent staff who will be working directly for the applicant on the program, and the percentage of their time that will be spent on the program.

Travel: Estimate the costs of travel and per diem for this program, for program staff, consultants or speakers, and participants/beneficiaries. If the program involves international travel, include a brief statement of justification for that travel.

Equipment: Describe any machinery, furniture, or other personal property that is required for the program, which has a useful life of more than one year (or a life longer than the duration of the program), and costs at least $5,000 per unit.

Supplies: List and describe all the items and materials, including any computer devices, that are needed for the program. If an item costs more than $5,000 per unit, then put it in the budget under Equipment.

Contractual: Describe goods and services that the applicant plans to acquire through a contract with a vendor. Also describe any sub-awards to non-profit partners that will help carry out the program activities.

Other Direct Costs: Describe other costs directly associated with the program, which do not fit in the other categories. For example, shipping costs for materials and equipment or applicable taxes. All “Other” or “Miscellaneous” expenses must be itemized and explained.

Indirect Costs: These are costs that cannot be linked directly to the program activities, such as overhead costs needed to help keep the organization operating. If your organization has a Negotiated Indirect Cost Rate (NICRA) and includes NICRA charges in the budget, attach a copy of your latest NICRA. Organizations that have never had a NICRA may request indirect costs of 10% of the modified total direct costs as defined in 2 CFR 200.68.

“Cost Sharing” refers to contributions from the organization or other entities other than the U.S. Embassy. It also includes in-kind contributions such as volunteers’ time and donated venues.

Alcoholic Beverages: Please note that award funds cannot be used for alcoholic beverages.
